RAPID TRANSIT QUESTIONS.

A MEETING OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

COUNSEL AND ENGINEERS TO REPORT NEXT WEEK IF THERE IS ANYTHING TO PRE-VENT THE ADOPTION OF THE OLD

COMMISSION'S PLANS. The Rapid Transit Commissioners, at a meeting held yesterday, postponed for one week the ques-tion of submitting to the electors of New-York whether or not the new system of rapid transit shall be constructed by the municipality. Commissioner John H. Starin urged the immediate settle-ment of the question, offering a resolution making the plans approved by the old Commission the plans of the present board, but it was thought best to make haste slowly on a question of such importance, and the Commission's counsel were asked to prepare a form of resolution for accomplishing the end sought. Then the board adjourned ntil next Tuesday. The Commissioners were all present yesterday except Mayor Gilroy. Secretary Delafield read letters requesting public hearings on the rapid transit uestion before definite action should be taken.

except Mayor Gillor, term requesting public hearings on the rapid transit question before definite action should be taken. Chief Engineer William Barclay Parsons made an oral report that he had consulted counsel and prepared tracings of maps adopted by the former Commission. The tracings were the basis of a long discussion. The tracings were the basis of a long discussion. The linest Sioc route received the most attention. This was adopted by the old Commission, but its construction was made impossible by an act of the Legislature of 1882, prohibiting the building of a railway over, under or upon Machsonave. Finally, the following preamble and resolution were adopted, which leaves the drafting of the resolution for accepting the plan in the hands of Mr. Beekman and Mr. Hoardman, the counself.

Whereas, This Board is of the opinion that the best interests of the city of New-York and its inhabitants imperatively demand that the question as to municipal construction of a rapid transit railway shall be submitted to the electors at the general election to be held in November, 1834, and Whereas, By the terms of the Rapid Transit act it is required that before the question of municipal construction shall be submitted to the electors, this Board shall either (I) locate new routes, adopt a general plan of construction, and obtain the consent thereto of the local authorities and of the property holders, or, if the consent of the property holders is withheld, then the approval of the teneral Term of the Supreme Court, and prepare detailed plans and specifications therefor; or (2, shall adopt the routes located by the commission organized under the act of 1891 and the general plan of construction approved by it for which the necessary consents have already been obtained; and Whereas, If the Board shall proceed at the present time to locate new or additional routes and to effect the property ow submission of the question of municipal construction at the general election to be held in November.

1894; and

Whereas. The routes and general plan of construction adopted by the Rapid Transit Commission, organized under the act of 1891, and for which the necessary consents have been obtained, are approved by this Board; and

Whereas, It is provided by the Rapid Transit act as amended that if the electors of this city shall vote in favor of the municipal construction of a rapid transit railway, this board may thereafter change or modify the routes and plans proposed, or adopt other or different routes and plans for a rapid transit railway, and power is thus reserved to this board, after such election, to adopt such additional routes as may, in its judgment, be necessary or desirable, and thus to make suitable provision for rapid transit on the East Side of the city above Forty-third-st.; be it.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this board that the routes and plans located and approved by the Commission organized under the Act of 1891, and for which the necessary consents have already been obtained should, if practicable, be adopted by it, to the end that the question of the municipal construction of a rapid transit railway may be submitted to the electors of this city at the general election in November. 1891; and.

Resolved, That the counsel and chief engineer of this board be directed to report at the next meeting of the board whether or not, in their opinion, there exist legal or engineering obstacles which ought to prevent the adoption by the Commission organized under the act of 1891, and that if they shall be of the opinion that the adoption of such routes, plans and specifications by this board is practicable the counsel shall prepare for its consideration such further and more formal resolutions as may be deemed necessary to effectuate its views as herein expressed.

The Commission's desire is for a speedy settlement of the question of municipal construction.

The Commission's desire is for a speedy settle-ment of the question of municipal construction. After that is decided they will provide a plan for the East Side, which will take the place of the one which the property owners of Madison-ave, rendered impossible when they secured the pas-sage of the law of 1892, already alluded to.

ALTENBERGER FOUND GUILTY.

THE SLAYER OF KATIE RUPP CONVICTED OF MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

trial of Bernard Altenberger for the murder of Katle Rupp was resumed in the Hudson County Court of Oyer and Terminer, at Jersey City, yesterday. The defence was opened by Max Salinger, who alleged that his client was insane. The first witness was Mary Kraft, Altenberger's half-sister, m it was sought to show that their aunt was crazy, but, as she had never seen the aunt in question, this evidence was excluded. Witness had seven sisters, but while one was weak-minded there was nothing to show that she was insane. Mary Shautz, of Rome, was called to prove that Altenberger was insane while in that city, she could only say that Altenberger came into her house one day and told her that the house next door was on fire, which proved to be untrue. Altan Terwilliger, one of the jailkeepers, testified that Altenberger was a little wild on Monday night that Altenberger was a little wild on Monday night when his half-sister visited him. On a previous occasion he had had a dream, and awakened and cried out that Katle had come to him and forgiven him. Altenberger then went on the stand and testified that he had been insane at one time in Germany, and had tried to kill himself by cutting his arrists. The scars were shown to the jury. He admitted that he had shot Katle Rupp, but said he did not knew why he had shot her or how many times.

admitted that he had shot Kalle Rupe, he did not know why he had shot her or how many times.

The summing up was brief, Judge Lippincott charge the jury impartially. He said that the degree of murder depended on the intent. If Altenberger meant to kill Katle Rupp he was guilty of murder in the first degree. If he did not, it was murder in the first degree, If he did not, it was murder in the second degree, and the prisoner must have the benefit of any reasonable doubt. As regarded the piea of insanity, he said that the hurden of proof was on the defendant; the law of New-Jersey did not recognize emotional or moral masanity. It must be a disease of the mind. After an absence of forty minutes the jury found Altenberger guilty. He will be sentenced next Tuesday.

FUN AT THE ACTORS' BALL GAME.

There was lots of fun at the Polo Grounds yester "The Passing Show" companies played-or, rather, attempted to play-a game of ball for charity. It is hardly necessary to say that the playing was not of the highest order, but the antics and costumes of the various players kept the 2,00 spectators in roars from start to finish. The '192' team won the game through their opponents' inability either to but or field the ball perfectly. The score:

WINNERS AT BRIGHTON BEACH

THE TRACK MIGHT BE PLEASANTER.

FEATURES OF THE DAY'S SPORT-NOTES ABOUT

MEN AND HORSES. A fair-sized crowd witnessed the races at Brighton Beach yesterday afternoon. The ramshackle grandstand and the many breaks in the boarding of the small space between the stand and the fence, added to the low-roofed, gloomy betting-ring, make the surroundings extremely uncomfortable to persons

John Smith, who escaped the war club of Powhatan, but is in 'mminent danger of annihilation by the stewards at Brighton, caused Hardy Campbell to send Hon Alonzo back to the Brooklyn track through a mistake, so that bets were declared off in the fourth race yesterday. Extra time was given to the bookmakers for a new book. Many persons said that the rules were violated, but the general opinion was that the decision was just to everyhody present.

M. Lynch, better known as "Gunner," had an interesting conversation with J. S. Campbell is the paddock, when he collected the money for riding Miles Standish on Monday.

Lynch said: "If you think I pulled the horse, you needn't pay me for the mount."

"Here is your money Lynch. I don't want to talk to you," Campbell answered.

"Then, I suppose you will have me ruled off, but the borse had no speed."

"See here, now, that won't do, Lynch. I worked the horse a mile in 144 at the Brooklyn track. I should do to you as my friends have advised me to do."

"What's that?" asked the "Gunner."

Campbell walked away.

Lively betting in small amounts kept seventy-one bookmakers busy throughout the afternoon. J. S. Campbell told sil his friends that Melha would win the first race. George Forbes railled the "Temberioin" contingent, and made ancrecomsampht on Mr. Sass, who was ridden by Tarai. Lifeboat was freighted with the hopes and dollars of many and was photed by Lendrum, but Lifeboat sank through the sumplifty of his pilot. Melha won easily by a length from Mr. Sass, who was a head in front of Lifeboat.

Longdale was made the favorite in the second race, with Jue Higley a heavily backed second choice. The others were not considered by the letters. Joe Ripley won all the way, as 127 pounds seemed to anchor Longdale.

Tinge singed the piungers in the third race. The heavy bettors played The Commoner as if the race was merely a pailon for him. Southside received some support attaight, and was freely played for the place. Rennel went out in the lead, and looked all over a winner until well into the stretch, when Tinge came with a rush, and, some through on the rail, won by a length from Kennel, with The Commoner three lengths awas.

Don Alongo was pessed as a starter in the fourth race, but was sent home through a mistake. Sir Walter was the favorite, and closed at 3 to 1 on in the leating. Invest, who met a good herse for the first time yesterday, was at 25 to 1 against. The race was a good one, as Duran headed Sir Walter in the stretch, we that a ten finish the was haif a length in front of the Western erack. YONKERS.

At the meeting of the Yonkers Common Council, held Monday evening, a petition was received from the "North and South Electric Rallway Company" to lay tracks in Shonnard Place, from North Broadway to Park-ave.; in Park-ave., from Shonnard Place to Ashburton-ave.; thence to Palisade-ave., through Palisade-ave, to Getty Square to the south line of the city by way of South Broadway; in Law-rence-st, to McLean-ave, in McLean-ave, to Parkhill-ave., in Parkhill-ave. to Linden-st., in Lindenst. to Elm-st., in Elm-st. to Pallsade-ave. rectors of the corporation are: Frank T. Saunders. intended as soon as consents are obtained from property-holders, many of which have already been secured, to apply for an extension of the road from Park and Ashburton aves, to the Sawmill River Road to the Tuckahoe Road to the Bronxville Road and at Bronxville to connect with the road now being built on the White Plains turnpike, making a complete road from Yonkers to White Plains. The to the low-roofed, gloomy betting-ring, make the surroundings extremely uncomfortable to persons who visit the track for the first time. After a few trips to the place, however, visitors become used to the discomforts, and do not appear to mind them. They rush about sesking for tiple like regular heach-combers, and cast their dignity to the winds. If the managers at the Brighton Beach track were at all Rheral, and kept pace with the times, a first-class track with all modern improvements would have been constructed, with a grandstand facing the occan, so that its patrons would have some return for their money besides the spectacle of six races for small purses.

John S. Campbell is to take charge of Coloned Jacob Ruppert's stable. Campbell is a skifful trainer, and with good horses to handle is likely to regain his former prestige, and return to the front rank of trainers, where he properly belongs.

William Riueston retures from his piace as trainer for Colonel Ruppert on the most friendly terms with his former employer.

Edward McGarry has not left Philip J. Dwyer's service, but will continue as the home trainer as hereofore.

John Smith, who escaped the war club of Powhatan, but is in 'mminent danger of annihilation by the stewards at Brighton, caused Hardy Campbell to send Don Alonzo back to the Hrooklyn track through a mistake, so that he's were declared off in the fourth race yesterlay. Extra time was given to the bookmarker for a new book. Many persons said that the rules were violated, but the general opinion was that the decision was just to everybody present.

MOUNT VERNON.

It seems-probable that the Mount Vernon May oralty question will soon be settled that is, if the Democrats decide to discontinue their tactics of obstruction. Edson Lewis, who is believed by the obstruction. Edson Lewis, who is believed by the people to have been elected, has submitted a proposition that the declaration be made on the face of the regular returns, in other words, that he be declared elected, and that then Edwin W. Fiske, if he wishes, apply to the courts, Leaving out the Hid District of the Fourth Ward, the district that is disputed by the Democrats, the vote is 1,400 for Lewis, and 1,400 for Fiske. The regular returns of the Hid District gave Mr. Lewis 156 votes, and Fiske 144 votes. This would give Mr. Lewis two majority. But the Democrats say that the returns of the Hid District were in error, and that Eiske's vote was 147, which would give him one majority. The whole question rests upon these two returns, but the Republicans say they have knowledge of fraud, which, if investigated, would give Mr. Lewis an honest majority of at least twenty.

THE SUIT FOR DIVORCE KEPT SECRET.

The suit of Mrs. Mary E. Thrail for limited divorce from Edwin A. Thrail was made public yesterlay for the first time, although it was begun three years ago. Mrs. Thrail lives at No. 138 Columbia Heights and her husband is a jeweller, at No. 15 Broadway, New-York. When the suit was began in 1891 it was the desire of the parties to it to avoid publicity. Mr. Thrail agreed to pay 50 a week alimony for the support of his wife and daughter. If there was a default in the payment for one month, the stay of proceedings was to a week alimony for the support of his wife and daughter. If there was a default in the payment for one month, the stay of proceedings was to be heard in court. Such a condition of affairs has arisen, and the motion came up yesterday. When the facts were presented before Judge Bartlett he said that, while the court might in the interest of justice satetion such a contract of secrecy, it was in no way binding on the court.

He was recommended for a place by a fellow-poet, M. I. Towns, the lawyer. In taking his leave of City Works Commissioner White, Fitzgibbon put his valedictory in verse, the last lines of which are: "I'm Fole; Fitzgibbon, a true son of Erin. And I don't give a damn for Gambrinus or Schierge."
